Whether they're playing a smoky little bar in their hometown of Ukiah or before 5,000, or opening for legendary rockers in the outdoor theatre of Konocti Harbor, this dynamic fivesome puts on a show worthy of their status as regional legends. Over the course of hundreds of gigs, II BIG has opened for a veritable who's who of classic rock: Foghat, Blue Oyster Cult, Loverboy, Grand Funk Railroad, Joe Walsh, REO Speedwagon, Ted Nugent, Jeff Healy, Creedence Clearwater Revival and Styx.

II BIG has drawn crowds from miles around to hear a sound that frontman Aubrey Hansen calls "Brand New Classic Rock." The band is huge on the festival, fair and rodeo circuit, playing everywhere from the Bay Area to Reno and Eureka. "Although our audience seems to be made up of all ages, we're most popular with those folks who grew up with the sounds of classic Eagles, Bob Seger and ZZ Top," says drummer Ken Ingels. "When we play live, we mix in some covers with our originals, anything from Jim Croce to Eddie Money and Marshall Tucker, but whatever we're doing, Aubrey puts a boogie on everything he plays. We're always out there having a blast."

Find them at Coyote Valley Casino this Saturday Jan 30th. Don't miss out on seeing these talented musicians entertain! They will have you dancing and moving from the first note!
